CITY LIBRARY RECEIVED FORTY-FOUR GIFT BOOKS LAST MONTH

Miss Wheeler, city librarian made report to the library board that forty-four books had been received as gifts during the past month. Almost all of these books were for children, some of them being especially well bound and suitable for the smaller ones. Seven books were ordered by the library and were ordered for the pay shelf. In a statement issued yesterday Miss Wheeler said, "Good book week had a good influence on the circulation of books from the public library. The children seem to appreciate the privilege they have and make use of the books to the fullest extent. We invite the parents and friends to visit the library at any time and watch the children selecting and reading the books. It shows the library at its best."
